For Immediate Release:

Altercare Transitional Care of the Western Reserve Honored

The City of Stow Honors Altercare and their Commitment to Stow

Rob Kurtz, Stow's Planning Director, presented Jennifer Fess, Administrator, Altercare Transitional Care of the Western Reserve with a City of Stow Recognition Award. Altercare of Ohio built their 21st care center in Stow, with a grand opening in November of 2015. According to Mr. Kurtz, "this is the largest new construction investment in Stow in several years. Altercare of Ohio is a tremendous asset to the community and the jobs generated from the facility contributes to Stow's economic growth."

Altercare Transitional Care of the Western Reserve is the only dedicated transitional care center in the region. After surgery, illness, stroke, heart attack or injury, Altercare of the Western Reserve offers the optimal setting to fast track a patient's recovery with specialized teams and therapy technology. There are two leading-edge orthopedic gyms, private rooms, infection free unit, and resort-caliber amenities. The seasoned transitional care team creates a personalized care plan for each patient with an educational component to assure maximum success once the patient returns home.

About Altercare:

Altercare of Ohio is a family-owned company operating 21 nursing care and rehabilitation centers in Ohio and Michigan. Altercare facilities are dedicated to patient-focused nursing and rehabilitation services. Innovative care programming and employee education are a priority at all Altercare facilities. Altercare provides a full continuum of services including post-hospital transitional care, skilled nursing, physical, occupational and speech therapies, Alzheimer's and related dementia programming and assisted living & independent living in specific locations. The objective of these caring services is to enable patients to successfully transition through our healing pathway.
